

Samuel T. Sloan III
94 Pin Oak Ln
Hempstead, TX 77445
979-826-7019 Office/Fax
713-705-2576 Cell
ssloan@thirdcoastenterprisesinc.com

Summary Innovative executive with 30 years experience in the seismic exploration industry. International experience includes W. Africa and S. America. Learned the business from the ground up. Turned around problem companies. Strong strategic thinker and team builder.

Areas of Expertise

- Team Building
- Transition Zone Operations
- Contract Development, Negotiating, and Management
- Quality Control Management
- Safety Program Design and Implementation
- Logistics
- Client Liaison
- Marketing-Sales

Experience EAGLE GEOPHYSICAL, INC. 1993-2007

President, Director
Built the Onshore Division into an $80 Million a year business in 4 years. Operated 3 crews in the US and 1 crew in South America.

KEY Responsibilities

- Business development
- Management of day to day operations
- Personnel
- Marketing
- Client Relationships
- Governmental regulatory agencies
- Strategic planning
- Finance
- Board of directors
- Shareholders

Vice President/Owner

Built and managed the first seismic front end company in the industry.

KEY Responsibilities

- Day to day management of $5-8 million a year front end seismic service company.
- Solely responsible for marketing, bid preparation contract negotiations and administration, accounting and tax preparations utilizing outside CPA. Arranged banking facilities and setup all company financing
- Responsible of all personnel, scheduling, logistics, equipment maintenance and field support activities

Western Geophysical, Inc

1976-1989

Party Manager

Built and managed seismic crews throughout North America and Africa

KEY Responsibilities

- Managed dynamite crews throughout Texas, Louisiana, and Northwest Montana-highland, swamp, marsh, and heliportable, using conventional and remote telemetry recording systems (Opseis, SGR, and Sercel). Managed heliportable camp crew in Gabon West Africa
- Responsible for every aspect of field operations, cost control and public relations
- Aggressively maintained data quality and client satisfaction through close and effective communication